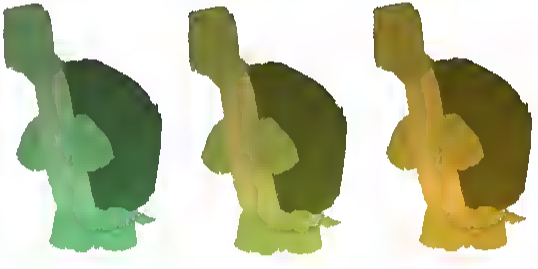
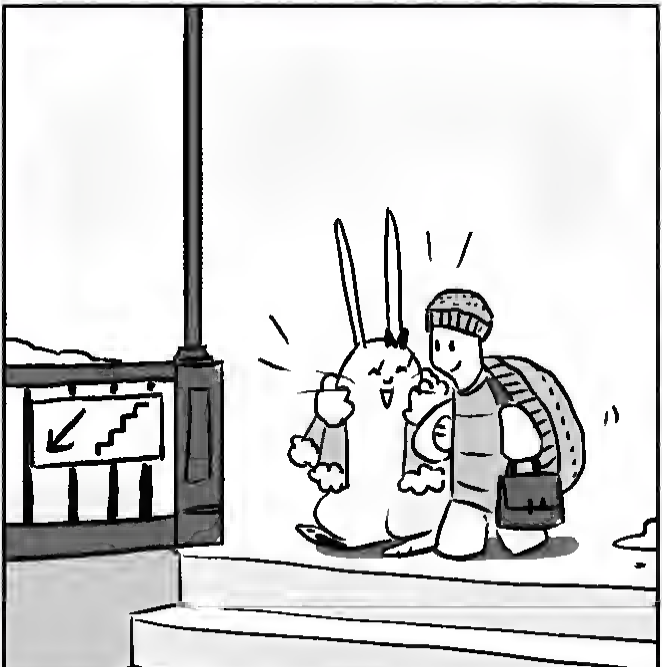
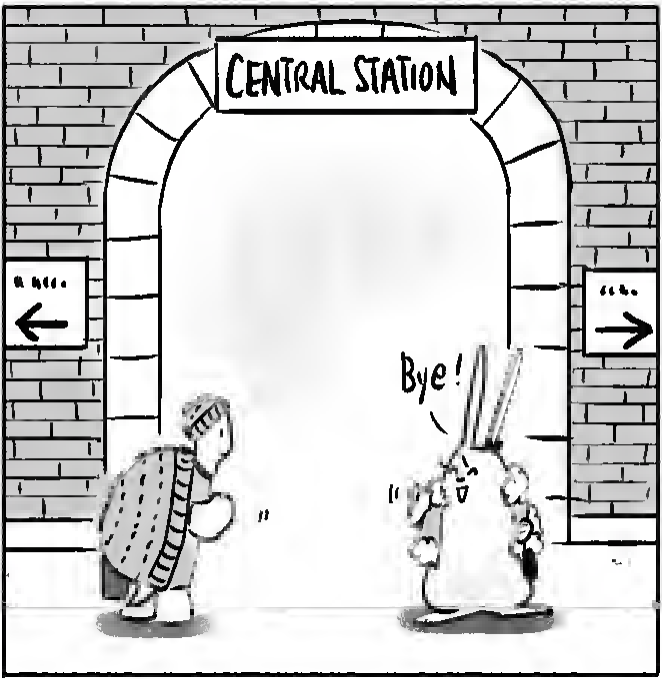
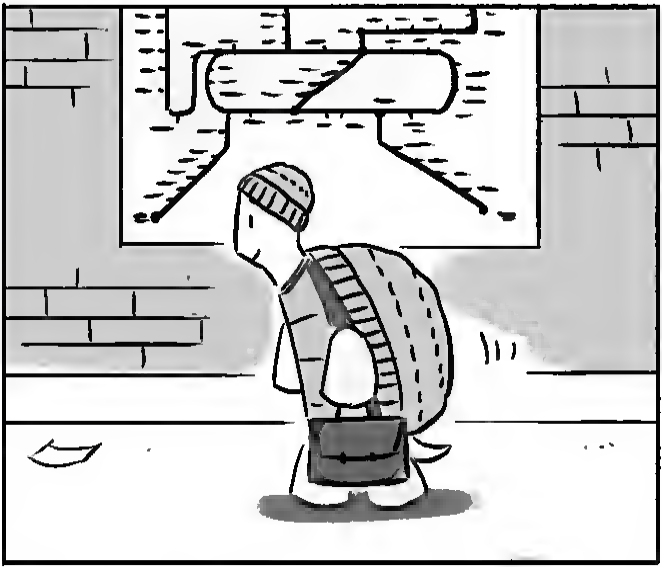
Irreplaceable

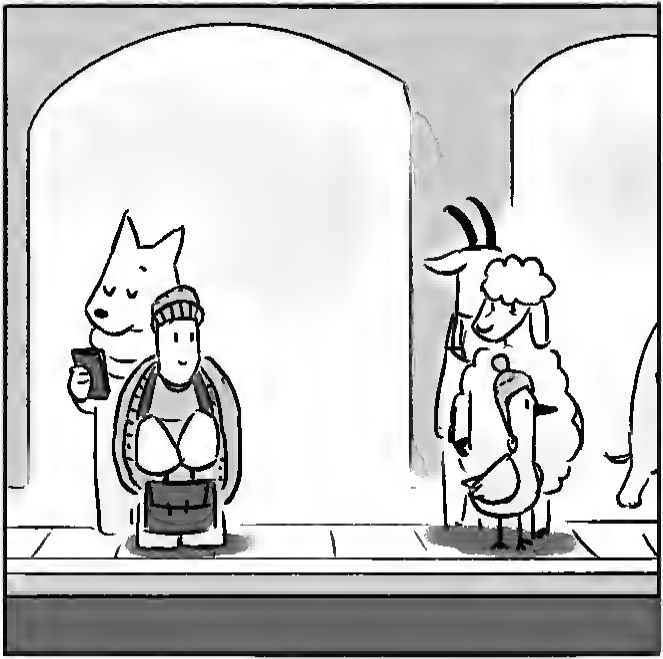






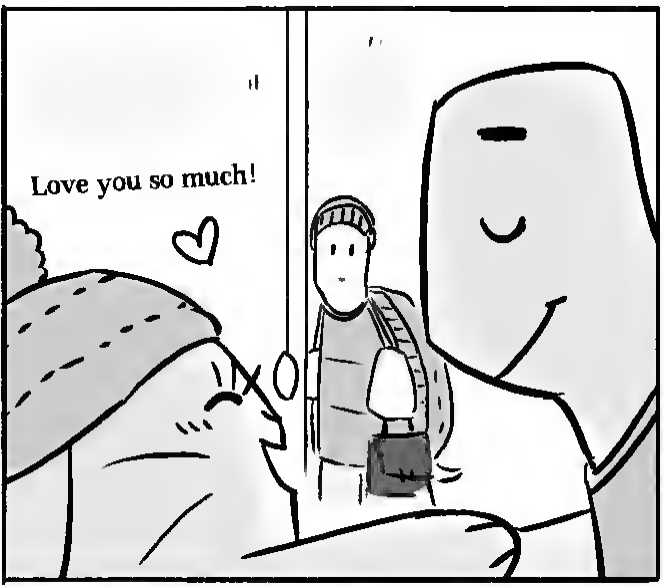
CENTRAL STATION
Bye!





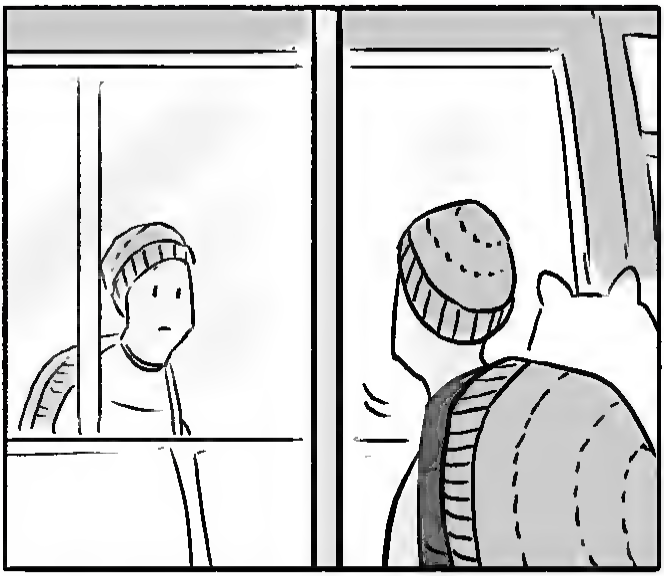
You are the most handsome tortoise I know!
hehe!
haha

Of course, or else how could I catch such a beautiful girl like you?
Aww, you're always so sweet and funny!

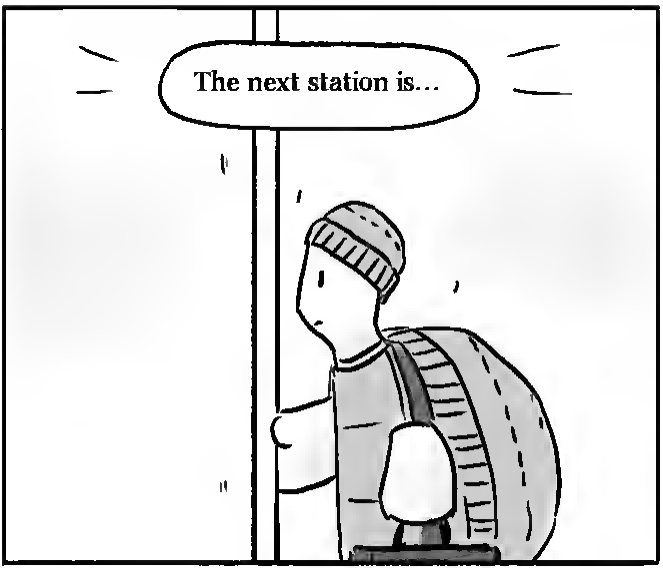


Love you so much!

Wow, that tortoise is really charming...



Sometimes, you feel ordinary.



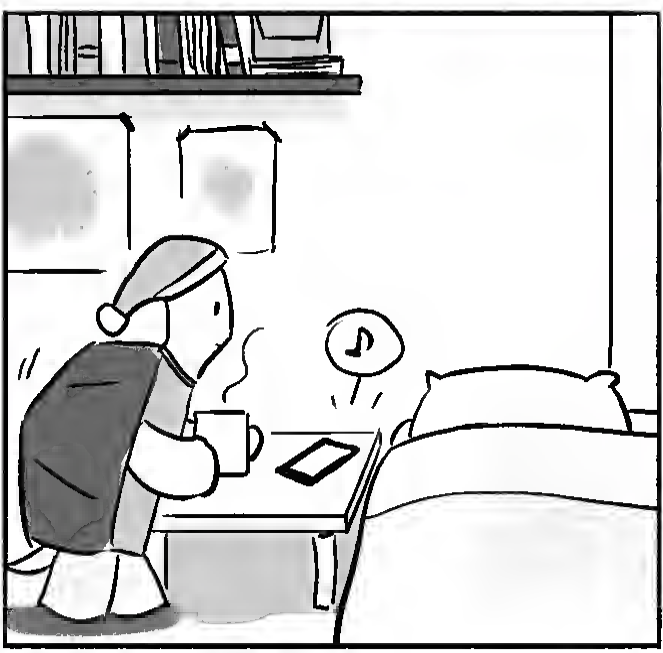
The next station is...

There is always someone similar or better than you.

If he asked Tiffany out, maybe she will say yes too...
He is strong, good looking, sweet and funny...much better than me...

You feel you could be replaced by any other person.

I'm just one ordinary tortoise among thousands of tortoises in this world...
...why would Tiffany like me?



Hey Tortis
how are you going?
Let's video call!

Um, sorry, not tonight...

Why? What happened?

It's nothing...

You seem upset about something

What's wrong?

. . . Why do you like me?

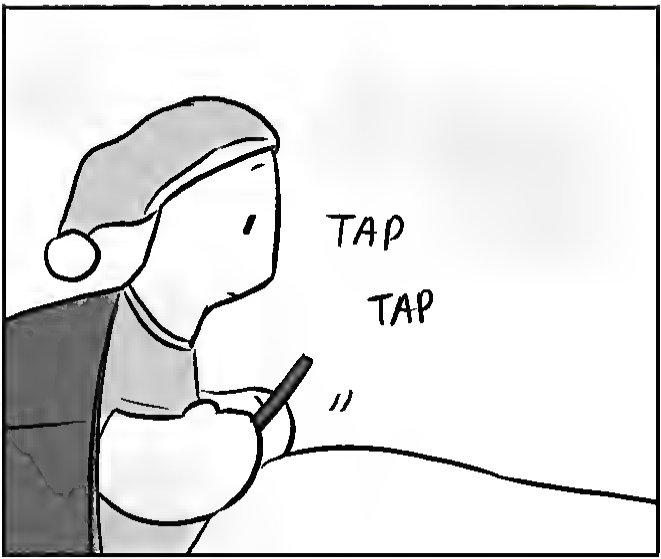
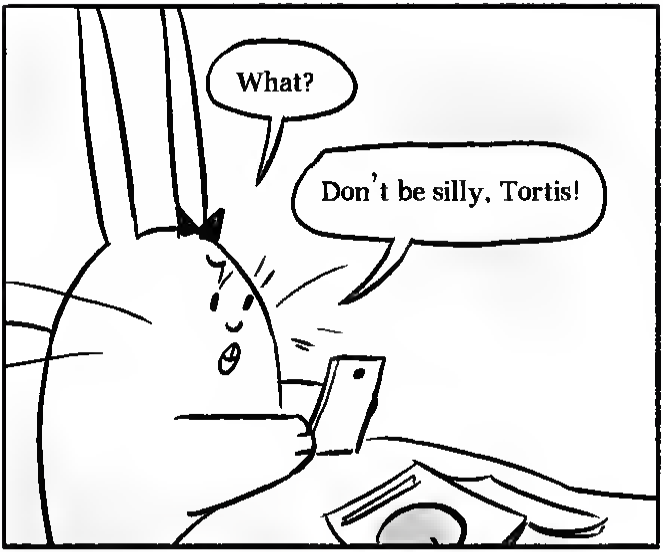
I'm not good looking.
I don't speak well,
and I'm slow...

There are many better tortoises...

I wonder if you would like them more instead of me...





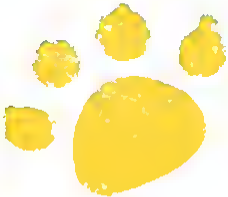
Don't be silly Tortis!

I like you because you are you!

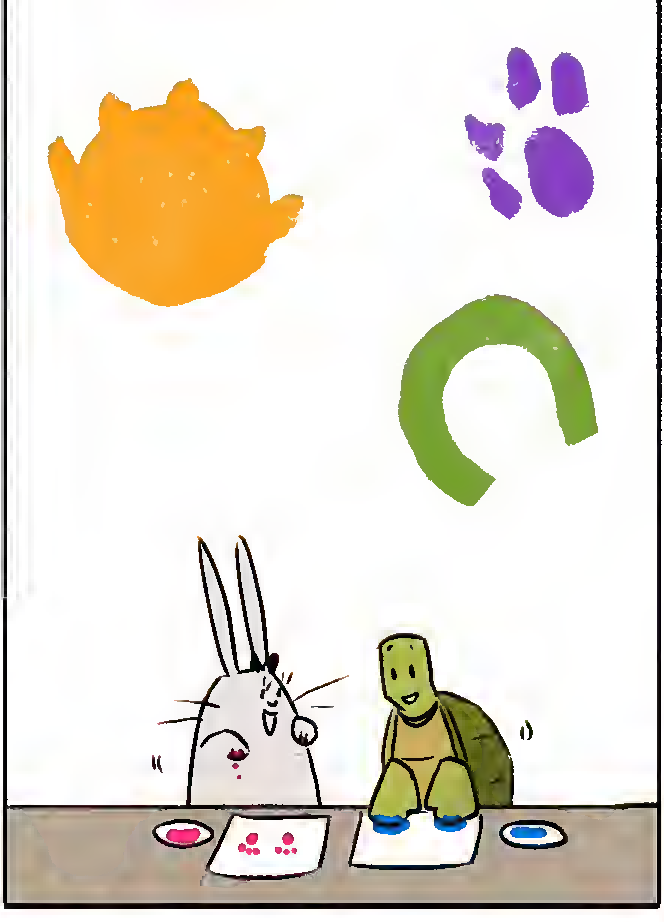
Every one of us is unique.

No two snowflakes are the same.

No two clouds are the same.



No two fingerprints are the same.



No two paintings are the same.

And of course no two tortoises are the same!

So don't ever think you are replaceable, because you are unique in this world!

Thanks Tiffany...

...Do you still want to video call?

Every one of us is irreplaceable.

Animals Around The World #42

Joe Mijnders

Hi Bonnie, I'm from the Netherlands.
And our national animal is the orange lion.

Readers from the Netherlands!

The orange lion is a sign of the union of Utrecht with William of Orange as one of the main leaders of the Dutch revolt. The orange lion is also featured on the Netherland national team for for than 100 years!
